Our Mission

Our mission is simple:

To build a community where gamers can belong, grow, and encounter Christ.

We believe the online world is one of the biggest mission fields of this generation. Millions of people spend hours gaming every day, often without meaningful community or spiritual guidance.

DeadlyFam exists to meet people right where they are and create a space where faith and gaming can live side by side.

DeadlyFam exists to reach gamers with the hope of Jesus

What started as a simple gaming community has grown into something much bigger.

Every day thousands of people from around the world connect through our streams, Discord community, Bible studies, prayer groups, and gaming events.

Many of them may never step foot into a traditional church, but through this community they are hearing the gospel, building friendships, and growing in their faith.

This is digital mission work.

Through livestreams, online Bible studies, leadership development, and community events, we are creating a place where gamers can encounter Christ, find real community, and be discipled in their walk with God.

Today's Purpose

- Inform you of the mission and the continued work done in the name of God
 - Invite Collaboration between the physical Church and online Ministry
- Provide encouragement of how Jesus lives in the online space
- Show how we do the Lord's work in evangelism online
- Take questions regarding our teams, and provide contact with DeadlyDill
